Online Open Campus

Admissions Office (International)

APU will be holding an online open campus through Zoom on August 29 and 30, 2020. This event is open to both domestic and international students.

The online open campus will include an English only channel for international students to join and participate in. There will be various sessions available for the English channel.

Information and sign-up links for each session can be found below. Click on the session you would like to join to sign-up via Zoom registration. Keep in mind all session times are according to Japanese Standard Time (JST) so be sure to check what your local time.
